

Welcome to Estia Health Merrylands, our aged care home located in the Parramatta region of western Sydney, New South Wales

Estia Health Merrylands is a spacious, welcoming home on a residential street in Greystanes, less than 15 minutes to the centre of Parramatta. It is close to public transport and local conveniences including shops, cafes and medical services.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer palliative care services, which can be accessed as short-term respite care or for a longer stay.

The home offers single and companion rooms, for couples wishing to live together, and many rooms have views of the gardens or courtyard. Residents enjoy spacious and comfortable living areas, a hairdressing salon and a chapel with regular services. Outside, the landscaped gardens and courtyard have raised beds tended to by keen residents, and barbeque areas. The onsite chef and team cook fresh daily to meet residents' preferences. The activities and excursions program is tailored to meet residents' interests.

Location

“From the moment we arrived, we’ve been deeply impressed by the nurturing environment and the genuine warmth shown by the team. The home itself is lovely, but what has truly touched us is the quality of care and attention extended to Mum on a daily basis.”
