

In the heart of Melbourne's vibrant inner north, Estia Health Brunswick offers compassionate person centred care

Our architect-designed home provides comprehensive care delivered by experienced registered nurses and care staff, 24 hours a day. Every aspect of our care is personalised through collaborative planning with residents, families and healthcare professionals.

Accommodation includes a choice of modern single and companion rooms, each with private ensuite bathrooms, designed to respect independence while providing necessary support.

Daily life is enriched through our engaging lifestyle program designed to promote wellbeing and community connection. Residents participate in activities including art therapy, pet therapy, cultural celebrations, and our paddock-to-plate gardening and cooking programs. Our innovative approach includes interactive robot therapy and intergenerational social programs to create meaningful experiences.

From short-term respite stays to permanent accommodation, Estia Health Brunswick is an inner-city home where residents receive quality care that maintains their connection to the community they love.
