

Welcome to Estia Health Victoria Heights, one of two aged care homes located in Bendigo, Victoria

Estia Health Victoria Heights is a welcoming home in the suburb of Ironbark. Close to the RSL, shops, hospital and public transport and situated on the corner of Victoria Street and Bennett Street.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer dementia care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The home's Memory Support Unit provides a safe environment for residents requiring additional support. Accommodation includes private single rooms with either private ensuite or shared bathrooms, and companion rooms with shared bathrooms.

Residents enjoy views of the city, cathedral or the home's courtyards from the three spacious living areas, while enclosed atriums throughout the home fill it with natural light. Daily activities are tailored around residents' interests and include exercise groups, cooking classes and visits from community entertainers, as well as a calendar of multicultural events.
